

Kennedy Fullum
(Columbiana High School)

If you are serious about succeeding in sports or any other avenue in your life, start here! Troy Parks, trained Kennedy Fullum for most of her high school career and became part of our family. He is dedicated to all of his clients and genuinely cares about them, their performance, and their goals. He made Kennedy stronger and more dominant with his training practices and regimens and ultimately it came out in her play on the court and the field. If your son/daughter is serious about sports and succeeding to the best of their ability, go train with Troy. You won't be sorry just as long as you are willing to put in the work! Troy is excellent at what he does!
